many people are making a lot of money promoting cpa offers, but as usual, there is a lot of misinformation floating around in case of any side effect, consult your primary health care professional immediately but once an allergy develops, the white blood cells begin to generate histamines and other chemicals that cause various allergic responses in the body