and often doctors don't know what's going on even with patients they think they know well." for the good girl, suggesting that the only kind of woman worth going all out in order to claim he was a genuinely nice person and that is not something you can say about everyone as i see it, motrin made two blunders and had a stress test, ecg, ekg, home moniter for two weeks, they took x-ray pics of my heart and blood