I am a shelter volunteer in Tennessee and have personally witnessed some of the harsh shelter realities described in this article.

Your dog's diet also has a major effect on her coat's condition.

Also, just a note, there are small, healthy women who have PCOS as well, though it is often seen in people who carry more weight.